Webmaster Annual Report for 2022

The ASPRA website continues to evolve with low but increasing usage. Coordination between the website, Facebook and the emails sent to members hopefully gets the right information in the right place at the right time. Pages related to the various ASPRA projects and activities have been updated on a regular basis

A new series of local interest pages on the site, a history of the Village shops, has been loaded. It is hoped that this will prove to be a useful place to keep all the 'local knowledge' about the 'what when and where' of all the businesses and will encourage feedback from members and others as the details grow.

Some minor technical glitches were rapidly resolved, usually caused by an upgrade which had 'unintended consequences!
